Greetings!... I experienced the tragic opportunity of having to, via the phone, encounter a rude representative at the Governor of California's office when I inquired as to the allegations of legislative approval for "reparations". However, before I could fully finish as to why I was actually calling, I was interrupted by the rude phone representative essentially scolding me as to if I had checked online as, according to him, nothing has been passed or approved (not even by the governor). The high level of wreckful disregard by the phone representative left me in a total state of shock, anxiously leaving me to call back with hopes of speaking with his supervisor. The result of that conversation? The phone representative hung up on me!...

This complaint is with regards to Tuesday, May 28, 2024.

'`~Respectfully,

Krista Dandridge-Barnett
